

Art and Design

Compassion	Friendship	Perseverance	Trust	Forgiveness	Thankfulness
Lympstone pupils care about themselves and others, valuing equity and inclusivity. They are supportive, empathetic and show respect. They aspire to learn and grow as individuals through understanding how past events have impacted an artist's style.	Lympstone pupils are collaborative. They support their class and school community. They listen to and value their peers. They are kind in their thoughts and actions. Collaborative work within Art and Design is a key element.	Lympstone pupils are self-motivated. They take risks. They can apply resilience and try again when they are challenged, achieving pride in what they do. They persevere throughout challenging tasks to complete an end product.	Lympstone pupils ask questions to help them better understand. They listen to and trust their teachers and the resources they use. They are reflective and courageous in their learning. They feel confident in themselves to experiment with a range of materials and techniques.	Lympstone pupils move forward with their understanding and learning even when things go wrong. They start each new lesson and topic with an open mind, and understand that new learning is important. Children are able to forgive and learn from what they perceive to be errors in their Art.	Lympstone pupils are thankful for those around them and learn from each other in content and attitude. They value the educational opportunities that provide scope for them to become explorative and creative.
